

We have an exciting vacancy for the following:

Curriculum Coordinator /Head of Department (Middle Leadership post)

- 'Outstanding' 11 – 18 SEMH School - London
- Attractive salary c£40k to c£50K+ (neg. for outstanding candidate)
- Massive support from the Trust & Excellent CPD.
- Jan 2022 start (or earlier)

We are a successful SEMH School and now seek to appoint an energetic and enthusiastic middle school leader, to lead the Science and Humanities department. You will have gained some leadership experience in addition to teaching either Science and/or Humanities.

We are looking for a team player, with high standards in education practice, preferably from a SEMH/SEN or mainstream (Primary/Secondary) background - with good planning and relationship building skills. This is a rare and real opportunity to follow a True 'Vocation' and a unique way of working (NOT reward & sanctions) where you can make a positive difference to students' life chances. You will receive excellent support and CPD – both personal and professional – within an 'Outstanding' school context.

The culture is welcoming, open, creative and all embracing. Staff are valued and passionate about providing an outstanding education for ALL children.

Closing date 11th October 2021.

Interview dates TBC w/c 18th October 2021.
